The Army Health Care Team is one of the most extensive and dynamic health care systems in the world. The Team's mission is to support America's Army at home and abroad, serving some 5 million beneficiaries.

The Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations accredits all U.S. Army Medical Command hospitals to the same standards as U.S. civilian hospitals.

The Army is a National Leader and sets the standard for care within the military and civilian systems, attracting and retaining the best health care professionals while sustaining exceptional training, graduate medical education, and research and development programs.
